Watch the documentary "General Magic" then answer three questions.

YouTube: <https://youtu.be/jwZBeKCpl8s>

Sorry you have to pay $4 to watch it.

Also available on: Hulu, YouTubeTV, SlingTV, Showtime, Vudu, Amazon Prime Video, and Google Play. Search "stream general magic" for options.

Question 1: Did you watch the General Magic documentary?

Question 2: During the movie Andy Hertzfeld visits the Computer History Museum. While in the museum he stops at a display that contains a Sony Magic Link. Given our History of Computers assignment, what 'stop number' is the Sony Magic Link displayed? Or capture a screenshot of the MagicLink on the museum.

Question 3: To be chosen by Mr. Brooks after you have correctly answered questions 1 and 2.
